WILLIMANTIC

Convention of Eastern Connecticut Branch of Woman's Board of Missions.

Willimantic is to have another convention. The next one scheduled is to be held under the auspices of the Eastern Connecticut branch of the Woman's Board of Missions, at the First Congregational church, with the Sodality and Glee clubs of that church.

The convention will open Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock and it is believed it will be in session between two and three hours.

The conference is being planned by Mrs. A. E. Eggleston of the Second Congregational church of New London and all the young people of the Congregational churches in eastern Connecticut have been invited to attend. An invitation is also to be extended to all the young people of the other churches of the city and to the older ones as well.

Rev. Brewer Eddy of Boston, assistant home secretary of the American Board of Missions, is expected to be the principal speaker. Miss Helen M. Calder of the Woman's board and Miss Grafton, a returned missionary, will also be present.

CADET GUARD

Organized in St. Mary's Parish by Rev. Arthur DeBruycker.

Rev. Arthur DeBruycker, rector of St. Mary's church, with Almie Martineau, has organized St. Mary's cadet guard. It is an organization composed of twenty-four boys, who will be conducted along the same line as Guard Florimond, which has been a successful one in the past.

Mr. Martineau has been placed in command of the boys, and he will act as their drill master. When these 24 boys have become well drilled, another twenty-four will be enrolled, making a full company.

All boys selected for the first platoon are enthusiastic over the idea as Guard Florimond has always been greatly admired by them.

These boys are training themselves to be sufficiently well qualified they will be unfurnished and suitably armed.

Contagious Diseases During October.

City Health Officer Dr. W. P. S. Keating's report to the state board of health for October discloses the following: Twenty cases of typhoid fever, seven of scarlet fever, two of tuberculosis and two of diphtheria.

In relation to diphtheria the present report shows far better than that of the corresponding month for 1908. In other respects the report compares favorably with that of a year ago, the cases for the different diseases reported being approximately the same.

Sydney S. Stone Wants $500 from the Phoenix Building Company.

An attachment of $500 was placed on the goods and estate of the Phoenix Building company by Sydney S. Stone Monday. Mr. Stone claims damages of $500 against the company. The writ is returnable to the superior court for this county on the second Tuesday in January. The tenants of the building were also served Monday with a garnishment process, which will hold up the rents during the pendency of the action. Mr. Stone alleges that on June 6, 1909, at the request of and for the accommodation of the defendant, he endorsed a certain promissory note, payable four months from date, at the Windham County National bank. The note was for the sum of $300. On October 6 the plaintiff paid the note and is now suing for the same.

The plaintiff also claims that he has done work for the defendant company for which he has not been paid.

Big House Finished.

The new storehouse for the Consumers' Ice company, near East Killings, is nearly completed, and will be ready to receive the ice from the mill to be harvested. The house is similar to the one that was constructed by this company last year, and stands close to the original building.

Hundreds of bags of fallen leaves are being collected about Danielson. The leaves are used for bedding in private stables, and have been found to be very satisfactory.

The Windham County Savings bank building is being fitted for steam heating.

Dr. F. P. Todd of Danielson and Dr. H. L. Hammond of Danville have been elected assessors and will determine exemptions from military duty.

George F. Fredette of Washington, R. I., was in Danielson Monday.

GRAMMAR GRADE

To Be Reopened at Willimantic School, in Response to Petition.

The town school committee has decided to reopen the grammar grade in the school at Willimantic. Miss Winifred Duffy, principal of a school at East Greenwich, R. I., formerly of Danielson, has been engaged to teach as Williamville and will commence her duties there on Monday, Nov. 15.

It was thought better at the beginning of the term to have the pupils close the higher grade in the Williamville school and bring the pupils from that village to Danielson. This has been the case since the school was being brought to Danielson by team; but lately parents have not been entirely satisfied with the plan for various reasons, and Saturday a petition was filed with James M. Paine, acting school visitor, asking that the school be reopened.

The school was closed Monday because of an accident to the water wheel. A meeting of the members of the school board of the town of Putnam was held in the office of the secretary, Attorney Charles L. Torrey, Monday afternoon.

Defective Chimney Causes Fire.
The fire department was called to a house on Woodstock avenue Monday morning at 10 o'clock on an alarm from box 31. The fire was in the house occupied by Edward Oler, the damage, which was very slight, was to the roof. The fire was caused by a defective chimney.

P. J. Daniels, Walter S. Carpenter and Simon Farley, board of assessors, held their last meeting to receive tax lists on Monday.

Twelve Arrests During October.

There were twelve arrests in Putnam during October. Six of the arrests were for drunkenness, two for breach of the peace, one for writing a bad check, one for larceny, one for court, one for larceny. The following disposition was made of the cases: Committed to jail 3, continued 1, released to leave town 2, continued 1, fines to pay 3.

Electric street lights reported numbered 25, for a total of 25 hours. Four doors were found unsecured and were fastened.

Officers of St. Aloysius' T. A. B. Society.

The following are the newly elected officers of St. Aloysius' T. A. B. society, installed by J. F. Egan, county director, assisted by Thomas Toolan, both of Putnam: President, John McGuire; vice president, Bernard J. McGarry; financial secretary, Henry N. Renoit; treasurer, J. F. Egan; marshal, Charles Ryan; board of trustees, Charles Ryan, board of trustees, John McGuire, James O'Brien, Thomas Duffey, Joseph Parry; visiting committee, Bernard J.
